COMMUNITY BEGINS HERE.

GOOD THINGS HAPPEN IN A GIVING COMMUNITY.

A GOOD IDEA. A PASSION for a cause. A COMMITMENT to giving.
These are the ingredients for a successful community foundation.

“Giving is contagious.

Growing up, it's something our family always talked about: using our resources to help people in our community who truly need it. Philanthropy has become a family tradition.

It's part of who we are.

And I'm honored that my four children — and now my sixteen grandchildren — are carrying that tradition forward.”
