

2018/2019 Teacher MiniGrant Recipients

School	Teacher Name	Project Title	One Sentence Description	Subject Areas	Grade Levels	Number of Students Served
Breckinridge Elementary School	Heather McQueary	Preschool Sensory Based Literacy Center	We want to create a sensory library for our classroom with sensory tools, to reach ALL learners in our classroom, especially those that need high levels of sensory supports.	Preschool, Literacy, Special Education	Preschool	38
Bryan Station Middle School	Benjamin McMaine	Spanish Literacy Night - La Noche del Libro	With the grant, we will purchase books in Spanish that will be used to read to elementary school students during Reading Nights.	Literacy in Spanish (all subjects)	K-8	300+ (accounting for availability in the library)
Clays Mill Elementary	Kelly McMaine	Improving Literacy for P-2 Deaf & Hard of Hearing and EL Students across FCPS	Grant funds will be used to purchase teaching and learning materials and family resources that support children who are Deaf/Hard of Hearing, including English Learners.	Reading	P-2	approx. 40+ (including families) Clays Mill and across district
Coventry Oak Elementary	Kiauna Coleman	Flex Class	I would like to purchase classroom furniture to give students an opportunity to choose seating that is best for their needs.	All subject areas	first	20
Fayette County Preschool Center	Shawna Pinson	Preschool Literacy Garden	We will purchase materials to create a literacy garden including raised beds, seating, and literacy pictures/signs to encourage imagination and literacy skills in an outdoor area.	Literacy, social, and cognitive skills.	Preschool	118
Frederick Douglass High School	Iris Isaacs	Calculators for Improved Student Achievement	Our school will be purchasing calculators that will be used in our classrooms, providing calculators to free/reduced lunch students that are unable to afford their own.	Mathematics	9, 10, 11, 12	77
Harrison Elementary School	Sherry Coles	Developing Future World Changers	The grant funds purchase books, shirts, food, journals outside speaker, old fashioned key. Funds will also allow students the opportunity to participate in a commencement at a local restaurant.	Cultures and Societies	5th grade	50
Harrison Elementary School	Sharon Ledford	Successful Readers are Motivated Readers	The first three levels of the Barton Reading and Spelling System (with additional tiles for small groups) will be purchased for use with intervention students in reading.	literacy	Any student (all grades)	My current students: 12
James Lane Allen	Kim Brown	Flexible Seating/ Flexible Learning	I want to provide flexible seating choices for my kindergarten classroom.	All	Kindergarten	20
Lansdowne Elementary	Jennifer Rodabaugh	Lego Learning	This grant will allow Lansdowne to purchase Lego materials that will be integrated into reading, writing and mental health lessons for grades Kindergarten through fifth grade.	ELA (Writing and Reading) Mental Health Awareness	Kindergarten through Fifth	Over 640

2018/2019 Teacher MiniGrant Recipients

School	Teacher Name	Project Title	One Sentence Description	Subject Areas	Grade Levels	Number of Students Served
Leestown Middle	Lynn Przygoda	Guitar Instruction for Middle School Humanities	I would purchase additional guitars for my Humanities classroom so there are enough guitars that students have access and do not have to group up and share a guitar.	Humanities	6-8	360
Leestown Middle School	Claudett Edie	Finding Our Voice Through BookTube and Vlogging	The grant funds will provide 15 - Smartphone stands with Microphone and Tripod for students to record video with their personal phones. .	All subject areas	6th, 7th, 8th	300-800
Liberty Elementary School	Melisa Meiners	Academic Growth with Tablets	I would like to purchase tablet/ipad type devices for my classroom.	reading,math,writing	Kindergarten	Currently 38 but will continue year to year
Picadome Elementary	Elizabeth Wakefield	Engaging Students Through Book Clubs	Through this grant, I will purchase 17 high interest, engaging, and recently published sets of chapter books to be used in book clubs with 5th grade students.	English/Language Arts	5th grade	about 80 students
Picadome Elementary & Garden Springs Elementary	Katie Farrington	Content Breakout with Breakout EDU!	With the awarded grant money, two Breakout EDU kits and platform access will be purchased.	reading, math, science, social studies	1st - 5th	approx 100
Sandersville Elementary	Joy Pickett	All About Kentucky Student Magazine	I will use the funds to produce and print our student magazine for distribution throughout our school community.	Writing, Reading, and Research	3rd-5th	25
SCAPA Bluegrass	Sara Merideth	Lighting Fire to the Kindling	A half-classroom set of Kindle Fire 7 would allow for student engagement at all levels in increasing spoken and written proficiency, as well as interpretive reading/literacy skills.	Middle School French	6, 7, & 8	119
Squires Elementary	Beth Hensley	KEEP Books-Increasing Reading and Family Engagement	With the grant funds, I will purchase a collection of KEEP books that are designed to support children in developing reading skills while involving them in enjoyable reading.	Literacy	K-2	40
Success Academy	Joel Katte	Success Academy Publishes Literary Magazine on Amazon's CreateSpace	Students will create poetry, short stories, and artwork for elementary school-aged readers; they will publish their work on Amazon's CreateSpace and read excerpts at area schools and community events.	ELA	pre-school through high school	1200

2018/2019 Teacher MiniGrant Recipients

School	Teacher Name	Project Title	One Sentence Description	Subject Areas	Grade Levels	Number of Students Served
The Learning Center at Linlee	Tony Brusate	Citizen Science in the Classroom: Ornithology	Purchase classroom binoculars to facilitate bird walks on school grounds and during Working Wednesday outings and contract a raptor education group to bring in live birds to augment the lesson.	Biology, Ecology, Mathematics, Citizenship	8th to 12th	15 to 190
Veterans Park Elementary	Ashley Carter	Graphic Novel Galore!	With the financial support from this grant I will purchase several complete graphic novel series with a wide variety of characters, Lexile levels, and interests.	Reading	Third Grade	22 this current years and many more students in the coming years
Veterans Park Elementary	Katie Sproles	Outdoor Classroom	I would plan to use the funds to set up an outdoor STEM lab to provide students will real life examples of the science content we are learning and allow them a more engaging space to learn.	Earth/Space Science, Life Sciences, NGSS Standards	K-5	766