

BGCF365 - 2017/2018 Healthy Neighborhoods Grant Recipients

Organization	Project Title	Project Description	Number Benefitting	Grant Amount Awarded
Common Good Community Development Corporation	Nourishing North Lexington	Funding helped support healthy food options, nutrition education, and formal recreational activities for participants in Common Good's after school program. Partners included Urban Ninja Project, Tween Nutrition and Fitness Coalition, Seedleaf, and God's Pantry.	180	$7,500
God's Pantry Food Bank	Leestown Middle School Pantry	Grant funding helped support the free food pantry at Leestown Middle School.	1,165	$2,500
Kentucky CancerLink	Patient Navigation for Cancer Screenings for Fayette County Residents	In collaboration with local healthcare partners, certified Kentucky CancerLink patient navigator worked one-on-one with uninsured/underserved Fayette County residents to: 1) schedule no-cost/low-cost breast and cervical cancer screenings, such as mammograms, ultrasounds, pap tests; 2) provide qualified individuals with free at-home colon cancer screening kits; 3) facilitate the American Lung Association's Freedom From Smoking classes.	250	$2,500
Natalie's Sisters Inc	Healthy Food for the Sexually Exploited	Grant funding helped support the purchase of healthy meals and snacks for sexually exploited women who visited the Drop-In Center.	10,000	$10,000
Radio Eye	Health Information for Disabled Population in Fayette County	Grant funding helped support healthy and disability programming, as well as fitness shows broadcast by Radio Eye for the benefit of Fayette county residents who cannot comfortably hold print material because of blindness, visual or physical disability, or learning difference.	3,429	$2,500