Grant Purpose

- Design and install interpretive signage at Huntertown Community Interpretive Park
- Engage park visitors in learning the history and legacy of this African American community settled after the Civil War
- Develop an overall plan for historical and environmental interpretation at Huntertown Community Interpretive Park
Interpretive signage tells the story of a place. It gives meaning, and creates a connection between people and their surroundings.

Possible interpretive signage along the Riney-B Trail in the master plan for Huntertown Community Interpretive Park.
Collaborative Process

The Huntertown Community Interpretive Park Signage project is a collaboration of the University of Kentucky, Ruggles Sign, Versailles-Woodford County Parks and Recreation and the Huntertown Park Committee.
Grant Outcomes

- Development of an overall plan for historical interpretation at Huntertown Community Interpretive Park.
  - Collaboration with UK Department of Historic Preservation

- Design first 2-3 Interpretive sign panels that showcase elements of Huntertown history
  - Collaboration with UK Historic Preservation, UK Landscape Architecture and Ruggles Sign

- Fabrication and installation of 2-3 interpretive signs in the Spring of 2022
  - Collaboration with UK Landscape Architecture, Ruggles Sign and Versailles-Woodford County Parks and Recreation
History is OUR story.

- The Huntertown Community Interpretive Park Signage project will allow us to tell the stories of the people who lived, worked, prayed and played on this land.

- Photos, archival documents, maps and oral histories will bring Huntertown’s stories to life for visitors of all ages.

- We invite you to be a part of history and help us tell the Huntertown story!
Through interpretation, understanding; through understanding, appreciation; through appreciation, protection.

—Freeman Tilden, Interpreting Our Heritage
U.S. National Park Service
Your partnership and support for the Huntertown Interpretive Signage Project are deeply appreciated!